

BYLAWS
OF
THE ROUTE 66 CENTENNIAL COORDINATION GROUP

Article I. Name

The name of this group shall be the Route 66 Centennial Coordination Group.

Article II. Purpose and Goals

The overall mission of the Group is to assist the United States Route 66 Centennial Commission (the "Commission") by identifying activities, projects and events that will properly honor and celebrate the Mother Road of the United States for its centennial anniversary. The Group will promote the landscapes, landmarks, and historical sites along Route 66 in New Mexico that will showcase the State's rich cultural heritage, artistic expressions, and culinary delights. The role of the Group is to support the Commission by providing information and reports necessary to undertake the work, and by facilitating the planning process for the centennial celebration.

The mission of the Group is to identify projects and activities within New Mexico that align with the United States Route 66 Centennial Commission by:

1. Identifying consumer experiences, events, projects, sites, and activities to be officially certified by the Commission and included in official promotional efforts.
2. Proposing the development of programs designed to involve all citizens in activities that commemorate Route 66 centennial events in the State.
3. Recommending, planning, sponsoring, and coordinating official Route 66 centennial events, programs, and activities that align with Commission's strategic principles which include Celebrate and Honor, Preserve and Protect, Tourism Demand Generation, Tourism Development, Business Retention and Expansion, and National Collaboration.
4. Identifying additional Working Groups to address specific challenges and opportunities, as needed.
5. Drafting and maintaining supplemental documentation and reports containing information and specifics to the Coordination and/or additional Working Groups actions.
6. Prioritizing projects and activities utilizing the Commission's dynamic scoring process.
7. Submitting all information and reports to the Commission necessary to carry out the functions of the U.S. Route 66 Centennial Commission.

Article III. Members
